Dr. Richard Lange is an active performer and adjudicator in the Twin Cities area. Performances include the Liszt Piano Concerto No. 1 with the College of Holy Names Orchestra in Sacramento, Calif.; the Beethoven Concerto No. 5 with the Lake Region Community Orchestra in Devils Lake, N.D.; and more recently, the Beethoven Concerto No. 1 with the Northwestern College Orchestra. Other honors include performances with the Master's Chamber Players on KTIS radio, an appearance on "Live from Landmark" radio series in St. Paul, and a guest appearance in KCSM-TV in San Mateo, California.

Richard Lange is a Professor of Piano at Northwestern College in Roseville, MN where he is the Coordinator for Piano Studies. He and his wife, Kim, coordinate the Northwestern Summer Piano Institutes, the Northwestern Piano Festival, and the Northwestern Piano Concerto Competition.

Dr. Lange received his Bachelors of Music from the College of Notre Dame. He continued his studies at the University of Minnesota where he received both his MFA and D. M. A. He resides in Crystal with his wife, Kim.

This activity is funded, in part, by the Minnesota arts and cultural heritage fund through a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board as appropriated by the Minnesota State Legislature with money from the vote of the people of Minnesota on November 4, 2008.
